Description :

Présentation de l'auteur DeMatteo Santiago is the Alpha of one of the largest prides in North America. He is a young, successful lion shifter, surrounded by a large family and his devoted lover. By anyone's account he has more than any one man can ask for, but his lion cares of nothing except finding their mate. An unexpected business trip pits DeMatteo and his long awaited mate on opposite sides of the courtroom. But when challenged by ex-lovers, nosy siblings, and crazy hunters, DeMatteo realizes that finding his mate was the easy part. The real question is whether they will live long enough to be together. This release is an M/M paranormal shifter romance. This series will contain, graphic violence, graphic language, and Mpreg.

What it will not be is an instant mate fairytale, as forces set out to destroy everything and everyone. Biographie de l'auteur LGBT Romance/Paranormal/Thriller/Suspense Author, Sharon Johnson is the pen name for a natural born story teller. The youngest of five, Sharon found the art of creating tales that had her parents often wondering if her adventures were real. Born and raised in New York City, Sharon spent most of her after school hours curled up with a book. An avid reader from childhood young Sharon took to expanding on her favorite stories. A former United States Marine she has a quick wit and a vocabulary that would make most sailors blush. Sharon spends most of her days as an ordinary electronics technician. If by ordinary you mean a heavily tattooed, pierced, and fiery redhead. Sharon has an Associate's Degree in Security Services Management, A Bachelor's in Business Management and is an Electronics Technician by Trade. She retired from the Department of Defense after fifteen years. She was honorable discharged after serving as a Motor Transport Specialist in the United States Marine Corps. Sharon now resides in the beautiful Pocono Mountains with her husband, four children, two dogs, and two cats. She sets out every day to prove that you can never have too much on your plate if you love what you do. Mostly Sharon is a believer in love no matter what form you find it in. She specializes in M/M with Alpha males who are complex and flawed but are willing to fight for their HEA.
