box full of lies and betrayals, and a chamber full of people who had grudges against the victim. But were they serious enough to lead to murder? Its up to Tricia to pull the lever on a killer before its curtains for someone else. Revue de presse Praise for the New York Times Bestselling Booktown Mysteries Fans of Carolyn Hart and Denise Swanson, rejoice!... This first-rate cozy artfully blends crime, cuisine, and even bookselling in a cheerful, witty, well-plotted puzzler. Julia Spencer-Fleming, Edgar finalist and author of One Was a Soldier Lorna Barretts new cozy creation has it all: wonderful old books, quirky characters, a clever mystery, and a cat named Miss Marple! Roberta Isleib, author of Asking for Murder A mystery bookstore in a sleepy New England town, a cat named Miss Marple, a nasty murder, and a determined heroine make Barretts delightful debut mystery everything a cozy lover could want and more. Bravo! Leann Sweeney, author of The Cat, the Mill, and the Murder Barrett is skilled at making her characters flawed and fully believable. Richmond Times-Dispatch Tightly plotted and paced to keep you turning the pages, this series is indeed getting better with each book. Gumshoe Charming An engaging whodunit. Publishers Weekly Sheer entertainment. A good rollicking read.
