Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur
Nell is a hardworking junior executive. Planning a much deserved vacation, she selects a beautiful old hotel just outside a bucolic coastal town and drives down to spend her first vacation in luxury. Exhausted from the trip, she finds the hotel less than advertised and goes off to the cliffs to see if they also will prove disappointing. They do not. Incredibly beautiful and riddled with caves, they fascinate her -- as does an almost impossibly good-looking man named Ben who seems to know their every secret. She is seduced by the beauty and mystery of this exotic place and alternately charmed and frightened by an interesting collection of townspeople. When Ben discovers that one of the caves holds the dead body of the sheriff, Nell realizes that somewhere in this lovable group is a murderer. She hopes it is not Ben or his not-exactly mother. As she attempts to discover the guilty party, it becomes increasingly obvious that unless she can unravel the mysterious doings before the end of her vacation, she could become the next victim of the caves of Honey Cove. Presentation de l'auteur Nell is a hardworking junior executive.
