Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurDuring the summer of 1967, three members of the rock band Wyldeflower head out into the arid California desert to kick back and relax.When they get there, they decide to take some LSD supposedly created by the government.What happens that night will not only affect the rest of their lives but result in the creation of a being with almost unlimited mental powers.Prsentation de l'diteurDuring the summer of 1967, three members of the rock band Wyldeflower head out into the arid California desert to kick back and relax.When they get there, they decide to take some LSD supposedly created by the government.What happens that night will not only affect the rest of their lives but result in the creation of a being with almost unlimited mental powers.Biographie de l'auteurJames Hawthorne lives in the Seattle area with his wife Rosemary and two crazy dogs. He previously published Nothing Happens For a Reason (a memoir) and We All Have Our Heaven (a novel about talk radio). He's always been fascinated with the way humans connect with each other. His novel The Visionary proves that without a doubt.
